DISCUSSION:

Marcela Jaimes is a library media specialist. Marcela is a part of the Adult Leadership Program hosted by YES Nature to Neighborhoods, a nonprofit organization that supports Richmond residents with receiving exposure to nature. Marcela is an SSC member at Caliber Beta Academy. Marcela attended and participated in West Contra Costa Unified School District board meetings and Richmond and San Pablo City Council meetings. Marcela is part of the Puente Mentorship Program.

Marcela's interest in the Library Commission is their background working with youth in inner cities. As a Richmond resident, Marcela knows the importance of the public library creating a safe space for youth who want to explore out of their environment through literature. Marcela believes the library is a vital resource to the community, as a quiet place to study use the internet, and check out books.
