FROM:	Mayor Eduardo Martinez
Subject:	Reappointment of Alice LoCicero to the Community Crisis Response Program Advisory Board
FINANCIAL IMPACT:	None
PREVIOUS COUNCIL ACTION:	9/24/2024
STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE:	Alice LoCicero is applying to continue serving on the Community Crisis Response Program Advisory Board
RECOMMENDED ACTION:	REAPPOINT Alice LoCicero to the Community Crisis Response Program Advisory Board with a term that expires on December 31, 2026– Mayor’s Office (Mayor Eduardo Martinez 510-620-6503)

DISCUSSION:

Alice LoCicero brings extensive professional and academic experience to the Community Crisis Response Program Advisory Board. A clinical psychologist with a Ph.D. from the Catholic University of America and an MBA from Simmons University, Dr. LoCicero has a strong background in crisis and disaster response, as well as experience working directly with police and teaching criminal justice students. Her perspective on the need for alternatives to traditional police response aligns closely with the goals of the program. Her continued service on the Advisory Board will contribute valuable expertise and support the development of effective, community-centered crisis response strategies.
